

Luxe Rentals Services LLC.

Terms & Conditions

By the very nature of this type of outdoor recreational activity it can be considered as dangerous in nature and certain elements of the Terms and Conditions detailed are written.

Luxe Rentals Services LLC. (hereinafter known as LRS) requires the completion of the online waiver release forms electronically signed prior to arrival. On arrival each guest will present a photo identity showing age and the credit card used for payment must be presented by the owner. Vouchers used to pay for reservations should be available in digital format.

The waiver release form indicates indemnification of LRS against personal injury or death whether accidental or not and to hold harmless and of its employees, or agents. Failure to sign the waiver release form will automatically disqualify any person from participating activities operated by LRS.

The presentation of false information is a federal offense and LRS will inform the appropriate authorities if they suspect documentation may be false.

LRS accepts no liability for the loss or damage to personal possessions any item brought on to the property is at your own risk.

You are requested to arrive 15 minutes ahead of your scheduled booking. Guests arriving more than 15 minutes late are considered as no shows and no refunds are payable.

Gift certificates are non transferable and must be redeemed before the expiry date. No refunds for expired or unused certificates are payable.

LRS reserves the right to cancel or prevent your participation at any time if we consider you are unfit to take part for reasons of health or safety issues.

Guests under the influence or deemed to be under the influence of alcohol or drugs or are considered to be unfit to drive or likely to be a danger to any other person will be asked to leave the property immediately without refund.

The form indicates indemnification of LRS for personal injury or death whether accidental or not. The loss of personal possessions. Failure to sign the waiver release form will automatically disqualify any person from participating in any activity on the property. Failure to complete the form correctly with the required information may result in cancellation of the experience without cause for refund.

You will be expected to comply with the directions and instructions given to you by members of the LRS team we reserve the right to halt or end any experience at any time if your behavior is abusive, unsafe, dangerous, and unreasonable or if behaving in such a manner as to cause injury to another guest or team member on the property. Under such circumstances there is no right to redress or refund.

Safety equipment will be provided and should be worn, always, especially when driving or riding in or on any vehicle or as directed by a member of the LRS team. Observance of all signs and notices regarding health and safety issues should be adhered to.

Damages whether caused by accident or negligence to vehicles or property must be paid for prior to departure. Incident report forms are required for every incident and must be completed and signed prior to departure.

Spectators on the property must complete and sign a waiver release form and are only permitted in the designated areas. They may also be asked to leave the property if they are acting in an unseemly manner.

Animals on the property are part of the Revolution conservation wildlife alliance and may not be interfered with, provoked or harmed in any way. LRS does not accept any liability for personal safety or injury sustained by any means, animal, reptile, insect or any other flora or fauna.

Only service animals are welcome and then only under personal supervision with the appropriate restraining leash in place.

Children must be kept under supervision at all times whether riding on a vehicle or not, LRS reserves the right to ask parents to remove the child from the property if they are behaving in an unruly or unsafe manner without any redress to compensation.